

Protecting the Identity of the Source of Confidential Information

WAC 296-800-340

Rule

WAC 296-800-340

Protecting the identity of the source of confidential information

The Department must:

- Not reveal the source of information when a promise has been made to keep the identity of the source confidential.
- Not disclose information that would reveal the source's identity, whenever a department file contains an investigative report or information from a source under a promise of confidentiality.
 - The contents of an investigative report may be withheld only to the extent necessary to conceal the identity of the source.
 - When information is withheld, the records officer must give a general characterization of the information withheld, but must not reveal the identity of the information's source.
